

Total Hip Replacement

Yanhee Hospital Bangkok 2009

THR is the removal of damaged areas of the bone from the hip joint and replacement with an artificial ball and socket joint.

Feel better, walk again without pain, enjoy your improved quality of life!

Total Hip Replacement

Total Hip Replacement (THR), also known as Hip Arthroplasty, is an orthopedic procedure commonly used to alleviate pain caused by Hip Arthritis and entails the removal of damaged areas of the bone from the hip joint and replacement with an artificial ball and socket joint.

If you have been suffering from restricted movement and walking due to a damage hip, you are now able to have a Total Hip replacement to restore the motion and function of your hip. Hip replacement surgery is successful more than 90 percent of the time.

Reduced Joint Pain

Once the new joint has healed, a person should be able to return to most routine activities of daily living, minus the pain.

Enjoy improved quality of life

Rediscover your favorite pastime recreational activities that you once loved such as walking, bicycling or playing golf.

Do note, however, that high-impact sports such as running, jogging; jumping will be discouraged because they can add unwanted stress on your new joint. Lifting weights greater than 20 pounds should be avoided as well.

Length of stay: 4 nights

YANHEE HOSPITAL

A short journey from Bangkok, Yanhee Hospital is without a doubt one of the key players in the Cosmetic Surgery field in Thailand.

For all Wellness Travel Patients: a Free Dental Check Up and or Free consultation with a Cosmetic Surgeon, in cooperation with Yanhee Hospital!

Yanhee Hospital

Yanhee, as a general hospital, is dedicated towards obtaining high medical standards of quality in primary, secondary, and tertiary stages including alternative medicine which is accepted by the general doctors in order to serve the general patients and managed care patients.

Yanhee is committed to provide the highest quality in cosmetic treatments and procedures by specialists for both local and international clients using the most modern facilities with state of the art technology.

Yanhee International Hospital aims to fully implement the national standards of quality by 2009.

Furthermore, it aims to be the number one cosmetic facility and healthcare provider in Asia by 2010.

Nobody is born perfect, but with the advancement of technology, body imperfections may now be corrected to achieve aesthetic beauty.

In the skillful hands and expertise of our cosmetic surgeons, coupled with state-of-the-art medical equipment and technology, plastic surgery at Yanhee International Hospital is safely done at fairly reasonable cost.

This fact can be attested to by our large clientele not only of local but also of international patients who travel half the globe to receive cosmetic enhancement at Yanhee International Hospital.

Our 13 full-time cosmetic surgeons first will offer an in-depth, honest, professional evaluation of each patient, as no procedure is the same for all. Then our patients are guided to define their expectations for surgery they want to undergo.
